Compare the Quadient IS-280 iMeter™ postage meter to online postage: Fewer steps, better features.

stamps.com®

Comparison	Quadient IS-280 with Neoship	Stamps.com®
Monthly fee	$22.75	$19.99*
Cost of supplies (ink and labels for 125 envelopes)	$6.87	$5.20
USPS® rate change updates	Included	Included
Discounts on USPS® First-Class and Commercial Based Priority rates	Yes	Yes
USPS® approved IM®pb shipping labels	Compliant	Compliant
Free address correction	Included	Included
Free package tracking	Included	Included
Free $50 insurance (Priority Mail) or $100 (Priority Mail express)	Included	Included
Reset fees (to download postage)	None	None
"Mail Now, Pay Later" – postage advance	$700 credit with no charge	None
Maximum account/meter postage capacity	$1,500	$500 for a single user account
Payment options	Choice of credit card or billed (no automatic charges to your credit card, unless approved)	Credit card required
Optional dedicated postage label printer	Not necessary	Starting at $79.99
Weighing platform	Integrated	Separate, not included
Weighing platform cost	Included	Free (+ $9.99 for shipping!)
Who insures your mail?	US Postal Service®	Stamps.com®
Need for extra telephone line	No	No
Postage security	PIN code protected	Easy to lose or misplace preprinted stamps
Steps for postage application	2	10

How many steps does it take to print postage on your mail?

Quadient IS-280: SIMPLE	Stamps.com®: COMPLICATED

Quadient IS-280: SIMPLE

1. Turn the power button on
2. Insert envelope
   (IS-280 prints postage directly on envelope)

Two steps and you're done . . . while the Stamps.com user is still messing with printers and labels!

Stamps.com®: COMPLICATED

1. Launch application
2. Login
3. Select "Mail"
4. Enter the label sheet code
5. Load label sheet in printer
6. Select print postage
7. Confirm print
8. Release the printed label sheet
9. Peel off the postage label
10. Apply postage to envelope

*Internet offer pricing as of June 14, 2018.